Nestled in the serene village of Mas, just minutes away from central Ubud, this beautifully designed 2-bedroom villa offers the perfect balance between peaceful living and easy access to cultural hotspots. Surrounded by artisan galleries, yoga studios, and quaint cafes, the location is ideal for those who want to experience authentic Balinese charm while staying close to all the action.

Step inside and you'll be greeted with a warm, inviting interior that blends modern tropical architecture with natural textures. The villa showcases a harmonious fusion of wood accents, rattan furnishings, and stone elements, all under softly lit ceilings that create a cozy, sophisticated ambiance. Thoughtful decor, built-in shelving, and earth-toned color palettes make the space feel both elegant and relaxing.

The outdoor area is your private sanctuary. A sparkling turquoise pool stretches alongside the open-plan living space, framed by tropical plants and natural stone walls. The lounge area by the pool is perfect for relaxing or entertaining, and the surrounding greenery adds a sense of privacy and calm, with views of the lush garden and nearby traditional rooftops.

Whether you're looking for a peaceful retreat or a stylish home in Ubud, this villa delivers comfort, character, and convenience in one stunning package.
