Located in the heart of Canggu, this stylish apartment offers close proximity to popular cafés, beach clubs, restaurants, and coworking spaces, making it ideal for digital nomads or as a vacation rental. The area is a highly sought-after prime location, known for its vibrant lifestyle and easy access to both the beach and the buzzing social scene of North Kuta.

Step inside and you'll find a beautifully designed 2-story loft featuring one bedroom and one bathroom. The interior combines modern minimalist aesthetics with industrial accents—exposed beams, clean lines, and a warm neutral palette create an inviting, contemporary ambiance. Large windows allow plenty of natural light, enhancing the sense of space and openness.

Outside, the property features a cozy patio area perfect for morning coffee or evening relaxation. Though compact, the outdoor space is thoughtfully arranged, offering a peaceful pool environment surrounded by tropical greenery.

This leasehold property is a rare gem in Canggu—ideal for personal use or as a high-performing rental investment in one of Bali's most desirable locations.
