•Enter a spectacular property with wonderful energies ... Passionate love for Indonesian art, culture, the artist has been inspired from east asia and French fusion. The owner has been collecting antiques, furniture, and upcycling ancient woods to build a modern, most refined home. It is a little piece of paradise on a large land of 1740 sqm with 8 bedrooms split in few areas. The main building of the house provides 4 spacious bedrooms, each owning their own design and a charming area dedicated to the principal living room with the kitchen, a bar, sofas, and a lovely terrace to welcome friends and family. 3 elegant suites are independently placed facing the tropical garden, the large pool and the rice fields. Colors are magical at sunset time! Each building has its unique personality. Each features a bedroom & a large bathroom with a beautiful bathtub. An antique decoration for a real escape ... An additional room with its private bathroom has been made, either to be an office or an extra room. Another space has been created to set a large interior living room which welcomes you for movie nights on the comfortable and comfortable sofa! Ideally located In the quiet area of Umalas, the villa gives you quick access to every attraction of Bali: beaches, trendy cafés & restaurants! This property is a place where everything was thought down to the very last detail to have a perfect quality of life.
